

FEES ON FLORIDA FOREST SERVICE MANAGED LANDS

Revised April 14, 2016

(All fees are in U.S. dollars)

The Florida Forest Service (FFS) may set and impose reasonable fees, rentals, or charges for the use or operation of facilities and concessions on state forests or any lands leased by or otherwise assigned to the Florida Forest Service for management purposes based on factors such as:

- Cost and extent of recreational facilities and services
- Geographic location
- Seasonal Public Demand
- Fees charged by other governmental and private entities for comparable services and activities
- Market value and demand for forest products

In addition to any associated fees, a State Forest Use Permit (FDACS-11228, Rev. 07/15) may be required as described in Rule 514.005(2).
